

We Observe and Uphold the YUKON HUMAN RIGHTS ACT

Our organization respects and follows the letter and spirit of the Yukon Human Rights Act.

We support and protect the dignity and worth of everyone.
We provide equal rights and opportunities for all employees, clients and volunteers.

Our policies, programs and processes are designed to address, prevent and eliminate discrimination in all aspects of employment and when we provide services to others. We do not tolerate harassment or unwelcome comments and actions.

We take prompt action if such problems occur.

We encourage anyone who feels they have been discriminated against or has been the subject of harassment, to bring this to our attention or, to the attention of the Yukon Human Rights Commission.

PROTECTED GROUNDS

It is illegal to discriminate against people on the basis of:

- Ancestry, including colour and race
- National origin
- Ethnic or linguistic background or origin
- Religion or creed
- Age
- Sex, including pregnancy
- Sexual orientation
- Physical or mental disability
- Criminal charges or criminal record
- Political belief, association or activity
- Marital or family status
- Source of income
- Actual or presumed association with any of these grounds

LEARN MORE ABOUT THE YUKON HUMAN RIGHTS COMMISSION

The Yukon Human Rights Commission believes every individual is free and equal in dignity and rights.

We promote equality and diversity through research, education and the enforcement of the Yukon Human Rights Act.

We assist both the individual making the complaint and the individual or organization against whom the complaint has been made.

The Act requires equal treatment in:

- employment
- receiving goods and services
- housing, leasing or renting
- membership in or representation by trade unions or professional associations
- public contracts.

Contact the Yukon Human Rights Commission if you have any questions.

We are here to help.